Code and rules of conduct

1. Introduction

This document is the code of conduct of HENDRIK LOUW PRIMARY SCHOOL as approved by the SCHOOL GOVERNING BODY on 12 November 2024. The governing body has consulted the school's parents, learners and educators on the content of the code of conduct. The code of conduct has been drafted in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Act 108 of 1996; the South African Schools Act, Act 84 of 1996 ('SASA'); the National Education Policy Act, Act 27 of 1996; Guidelines for a Code of Conduct for Learners (General Notice 776 in Government Gazette 18900 dated 15 May 1998); the Regulations on Devices to be used for Drug Testing and the Procedure to be followed (GN 1140 in Government Gazette 31417 dated 19 September 2008); Regulations for Safety Measures at Public Schools (GN 1040 in Government Gazette dated October 2001, as amended) and relevant provincial legislation.

2. Objective

Although the State is obligated to make education available and accessible, this must be enhanced by the dedication and commitment of responsible role players, namely educators, learners and parents. This code of conduct is intended to promote such dedication and commitment.

This code of conduct aims to establish a disciplined and purposeful school environment, which is dedicated to promoting and maintaining the quality of the learning process.

The code of conduct endorses the school's mission statement.

Learners and their parents/guardians are expected to acquaint themselves with the school's code of conduct and its provisions. As soon as learners are enrolled at the school/hostel, they are subject to the code of conduct, and must strictly adhere to it. Should learners transgress or violate the code of conduct, they will be acted against in accordance with the disciplinary procedure for learners.

Said disciplinary process will be applied expeditiously, fairly, correctively, consistently and educationally. Where possible, the parent/s of the learners concerned will be informed and involved in correcting the learner's behaviour. Learner/s will be protected against intimidation from adults and/or other learners at all times.

In terms of legislation, the school authority is authorised to discipline learners. However, this power is not granted or delegated to fellow learners.

Every educator is responsible for maintaining discipline in the school and at school activities. Therefore, every educator has the right and responsibility to correct learners' behaviour. Serious misconduct will be referred to the principal.

In the case of less serious misconduct, the aim is to address the learner's behaviour correctively.

Suspension of a learner will only be considered after all efforts have been made to correct the learner's behaviour or if a learner has committed a category C misconduct.

Any violation of 3.11 or 3.12 of the code of conduct

In case of the violation of any of the abovementioned provisions, such violation shall be referred to the governing body, who will be entitled to impose the following sanctions:

- a) Any of the sanctions in 1.1.1(a) to (d) and 1.1.2(b) to (e) above, to which the following could be added:

In conjunction with or as alternative to the above, suspension from duties for a period of up to six weeks, or dismissal and permanent removal from the Learner Council or other leadership position in the school

- c) Following a hearing in which any learner is found guilty of violating the provisions of the code of conduct, the governing body may impose any of the aforementioned sanctions on such learner, or suspend the learner, or recommend the learner's expulsion from the school to the Head of Education.

1.2.2 Should the governing body opt for suspension as the only sanction, they may suspend the learner for up to seven school days.

1.2.3 Should the governing body decide to recommend to the Head of Education that the learner be expelled, the governing body may suspend such learner for a reasonable period of up to fourteen school days, pending the Head of Education's decision.

2. Preventative suspension

The governing body may, on reasonable grounds and as a precautionary measure, suspend a learner who has allegedly committed serious misconduct (category C) from school attendance for up to seven days, but may only impose such suspension after the learner has received a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the governing body in connection with such suspension.

Disciplinary hearing

3.1 Preliminary inquiry

When a learner is suspected or alleged to have committed a major transgression (Category C), the school principal may appoint an investigating officer. The latter will collect information for the school principal to decide whether a disciplinary hearing is warranted.

3.2 Hearing

3.2.1 The investigating officer shall draw up a charge sheet, and the parents and learner shall receive written notice of the charge and the date, time and venue of the hearing. These arrangements must be made in consultation with the disciplinary committee.

3.2.2 The notice must contain sufficient information on the date, place and nature of the alleged transgression.

3.2.3 At least five school days must lapse between the delivery of the notice and the hearing.

In case of major transgressions, the learner is entitled to apply for representation by a legal representative or any person who is appointed by the parent of the learner. Such application must be directed to the chair of the disciplinary committee at least two school days before the start of the hearing. No other persons, apart from those mentioned above, may attend the hearing on behalf of the accused learner.

3.2.6 When a learner has legal representation, he/she may choose to expedite the disciplinary procedure by entering into a plea bargain with the presiding officer.

3.2.7 Apart from minor learners' right to testify through mediators, as envisaged in Section 8(7)–(9) of SASA, minor learners (either accused or witnesses) will also be entitled to be assisted by their parents or an educator of their choice during disciplinary proceedings. However, a person who assists a learner may not answer any questions on behalf of the learner or address the disciplinary committee.

- 3.2.8 Learners who are involved in disciplinary proceedings shall also be entitled to receive support, advice and counselling from educators who have been appointed for such purpose by the school principal or the governing body, provided that such educator may not assist the learner at the disciplinary hearing, unless the parent of the learner authorises the educator to do so.
- 3.2.9 Should the learner and/or his/her parents and/or representative fail to attend despite proper notification, the hearing may proceed in their absence.
- 3.2.10 The hearing must be fair and just and shall be conducted in terms of the prescripts of the applicable provincial legislation. The prosecutor and learner (or the learner's representative on behalf of the learner, if applicable) must be afforded the opportunity to put their case, may put questions to witnesses, may call witnesses, and may scrutinise or table documents related to the matter.
- 3.2.11 The members of the disciplinary committee themselves shall also be entitled to call witnesses, request additional witnesses or testimony, put questions to the witnesses, or investigate or have investigated further any aspect that could promote fairness and justice.
- 3.2.12 After testimony has been heard, the committee shall decide whether the learner is guilty or innocent. For this purpose, or for the purposes of settling any dispute that may arise during the proceedings, the committee shall be entitled to adjourn for a reasonable period of time in order to consider its ruling. Such consideration shall occur behind closed doors and may be attended by committee members only.
- 3.2.13 Should the learner be found guilty, both the learner and the prosecutor shall receive another opportunity to testify and/or make representations on extenuating and aggravating circumstances that the committee needs to consider in order to impose an appropriate sanction. In order to consider an appropriate sanction, the committee shall be entitled again to adjourn for a reasonable period of time. Such consideration shall occur behind closed doors and may be attended by committee members only.

3.3 Finding and sanction

- 3.3.1 In case of a guilty finding, the disciplinary committee's ruling, including the imposed sanction, must be communicated in writing to the learner and his/her parents as well as the prosecutor within a maximum of five school days.
- 3.3.2 Despite any guilty finding and sanction imposed by the governing body, any stakeholder may refer any transgression of the code of conduct that may constitute a criminal offence to the South African Police Service for investigation.

4. Internal appeal

- 4.1 A party who is aggrieved with the outcome of disciplinary proceedings before the governing body's disciplinary committee shall be entitled to appeal in writing to the chair of the governing body against the guilty finding, imposed sanction, or both, within 24 hours of receiving written notice of the outcome.
- 4.2 The notice of appeal must clearly outline the grounds for the appeal.
- 4.3 The chair of the governing body must appoint an appeals committee within 24 hours of receiving the notice of appeal, which committee must consist of a member of the governing body as chair, and at least two other experts. The members of the disciplinary committee who had heard the matter may not serve on the appeals committee as well.
- 4.4 The chair of the governing body must hand the notice of appeal to both the chair of the appeals committee and the other party to the proceedings before the disciplinary committee, and must ensure that the record of the disciplinary proceedings be made available to the appeals committee.
- 4.5 Within 24 hours of receiving the notice of appeal, the other party shall be entitled to make representations in response thereto to the chair of the appeals committee.
- 4.6 In considering the appeal, the appeals committee shall be restricted to considering the record of the proceedings before the disciplinary committee, the notice of appeal, and any representations that the other party may submit.
- 4.7 Any party who wishes to submit to the appeals committee for its consideration any evidence that does not form part of the record of proceedings before the disciplinary committee, must apply in writing for permission to the chair of the appeals committee. In case of the appellant, such application must be contained in the notice of appeal, and in the case of the other party, application must take place within 24 hours of receiving the notice of appeal.

4.8 The application to submit new evidence must contain a full explanation why the evidence had not been available or tabled during the disciplinary proceedings, must outline the nature of the evidence, and must explain in what way the evidence bears reference to the consideration of the appeal.

4.9 The appeals committee must announce its decision to the parties in writing within seven school days of receiving the notice of appeal.

4.10 In considering the appeal, the appeals committee may:

- a) set aside or uphold the disciplinary committee's guilty or not guilty finding and/or imposed sanction;
- b) impose an alternative sanction (including a heavier sanction); and
- c) deliver any other ruling that the appeals committee deems fair and just under the circumstances.

5. General provisions

The governing body is expected to keep proper record of the disciplinary proceedings. For this purpose, the governing body may appoint a person to minute or electronically record the proceedings. Such person shall not form part of the committee.
